

DISTRICT NURSE

District Nurses provide support to patients and their families, mainly in the patients own home. A member of the District Nursing team will identify any health care needs a patient may have

Your District Nurse can be contacted at your Health Centre. It may be possible to speak directly to a District Nurse, but if they are not available reception staff will ask for your name and telephone number and the District Nurse will call you back

